Deputation Director and Church Planting Representative for Asia

Dear Pastors, partners, and friends in the ministry,

March/April 2025

Happy Spring! It was a busy last couple of months, as we had a Youth For The Gospel (YFTG), Youth Conference at Vision Baptist Church, launched a missionary, a Missions Rally at Vision School of Missions, and sent our oldest daughter and her family back to Argentina to begin to plant churches.

A Season of Ministry and Missions

The past two months have been incredibly busy, yet so rewarding. In February, much of our time was spent on the day-to-day tasks of administration, teaching, and preparing for the many activities of March. Then, as March arrived, we found ourselves deeply involved in several exciting opportunities to challenge and equip young people for world missions.

Raising Up More Laborers

Early in March, we held our first Youth for the Gospel (YFTG) meeting of the year in Toccoa, GA. It was an incredible time of preaching, fellowship, and focusing on the urgent need for the Gospel worldwide. We were especially encouraged by two young people who signed the pledge to follow God's leading in missions, committing to do whatever He calls them to do.

Midway through the month, we participated in Vision Baptist Church's Authentic Youth Conference. This event brought together youth groups from various places, allowing us to engage with many young people about how they can be involved in missions.

Later in the month, we helped host a Missions Rally at Vision Baptist Missions. The event kicked off on Wednesday night and continued through Friday at noon, providing young people a chance to experience the Vision School of Missions campus and be encouraged toward a life dedicated to reaching the lost. Our Vision School of Missions students did a phenomenal job hosting and serving, and our student speakers and missionaries delivered powerful messages on missions from God's Word. It was a blessed time of fun, fellowship, and faith-building.

Launching Missionaries to the Field

One of the most fulfilling aspects of my role as Deputation Director is helping families finalize their preparations and launch onto the mission field. This month, we had the joy of assisting Josh and Morgan Barton as they prepare to leave for Mozambique in April. I, along with another missionary, also had the privilege of attending Josh's ordination service at his home church. It is a blessing to see God's faithfulness in their lives, and we are excited to watch how He will use them to reach the people of Mozambique.

A Bittersweet Send-Off

At the beginning of March, we faced the difficult but necessary task of sending off our oldest daughter and her family as they returned to Argentina to begin planting churches. While our hearts ache from missing them, we are incredibly grateful for the time we shared together. Though it is hard to see them go, our hearts are comforted by the fact that God is using them to bring the lost to Christ in Argentina. We know that eternity will reveal the fruit of their sacrifice and service.
